Jamestown Exposition Roast.

One of the most delightful of the smaller functions of the Exposition, was an oyster roast given by a number of Exposition employees Sunday night with Col. C. A. Wood, chief inspector of admissions, and R. M. Newland, ticket custodian, as the guests of honor. There was no end of bi-vaives and no end of pleasure. The occasion was one of the many in which the sub-officials of the great fair have participated and has been pronounced as probably the most enjoyable. The hosts of the day were the ticket sellers, gatemen and inspectors and included the following: C. M. Bailey, C. S. Giles, S. P. Hinkle, T. B. Smith, S. E. Patton, H. Peden, L. Arnold, J. B. Chamberland, M. R. Woodard, E. B. Ward and H. McAninch.

Mr. Peden was called upon for an expression of the sentiment of the boys toward the guests of the evening and said: There is no doubt that you are all as greatly surprised as the speaker is himself, in me appearing before this small, yet intelligent audience to make a speech, and if I should attempt to make a speech on this occasion or any other, we certainly would mistake brass for brains. Indeed, if you will bear with me for a few brief moments there is no doubt but the display of my ignorance may amuse you to some extent, after partaking of this delicious supper so freely. I do not feel able physically to make a speech and never was able mentally, so do not expect much and you will not be sadly disappointed. And if now I should attempt to make a speech it would be simply awful simple.

Now, in behalf of our two distinguished friends, whose ability we all admire and whose ways we have all learned to love long ago, the speaker wishes to give a brief illustration. Once as you would chance to gaze upon the magnificent Star Spangled Banner you would only see set in that field of blue, 13 stars, representing the 13 original Colonies. Since then we have advanced rapidly, advanced step by step, adding many new States to our Union. And to-day when you chance to gaze upon that beautiful emblem of liberty, that magnificent Star Spangled Banner, which waves so proudly o'er us, you will see set in that field of blue, 47 glittering stars, spreading forth their rays of light, representing the greatest, grandest and most powerful and enlightened nation upon the face of "God's Green Foot Stool" and we have not reached the zenith of our greatness yet. And it is with great pleasure and pride that we gaze upon that beautiful emblem of liberty as it unfolds its beauty, pride, grandeur, and glory in the breeze.

And it is with no less pride and pleasure that we are here in honor of our two chiefs, who have worked in harmony and peace and who have guided the helm of State so well on the many days of the tempest tossed sea of strife at the Jamestown Exposition. And we have to say it is with the "deepest, heart-felt regrets" that we realize the sad fact that our esteemed friend, Mr. Newland, is about to take his departure and it is sadder still when we realize we all soon must part, and now, Mr. Newland, speaking earnestly and sincerely in behalf of each one here assembled, it is the earnest wish that peace, prosperity and happiness may be ever with you in whatever vocation of life you may follow.

Now we only look to our dear chief, whose head is covered with snow white locks of honor and respect and who is endowed with a heavy, born mental faculty, and has it highly cultivated to lead us on to the close of the Exposition, and we know that he is able and capable of doing this, if he has not eaten too many oysters on this occasion. Respectfully, HENRY MCANINCH.

Biliousness And Constipation.

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been to-day had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally."—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

A Good Liniment.

When you need a good, reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all Druggists.

Augustus E. Willson.

Augustus E. Willson, Kentucky's republican governor-elect, was born in Maysville, Oct. 13, 1847. He is a son of the late Hiram Willson and Ann Colvin Ennis. Both parents were of New England origin, the father having been born in Windsor, Vt., and the mother in Westerly, R. I. They settled in Maysville in the '30s. Mr. Willson received his early education in the Alfred Academy in Western New York, and after a preparatory course entered Harvard University. He is a graduate of the university and of Harvard Law School, class of '69. Immediately after leaving college he came to Louisville and entered the law office of Judge John M. Harlan, now Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. For many years he was Justice Harlan's law partner and was associated with him in many prominent legal cases. Since Justice Harlan has been in Washington Mr. Willson has practiced almost exclusively in the United States court. Recently he formed a law partnership with Judge William G. Dearing and Arthur E. Hopkins. The firm occupies a suite of handsome offices on the seventh floor of the new Paul Jones building.

Mr. Willson has always been an earnest republican, as he said in his campaign speeches, "I hollered for Fremont in '56." In many Kentucky and national political campaigns he has been prominent. He took the stump for Judge Harlan in the latter's race for the governorship and years later in the Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt political campaigns. He was nominated and defeated three times for Congress in the Louisville district, in the years 1884, 1888 and 1902, then hopelessly democratic, and succeeded in cutting down the democratic majority each time. In 1886 he was nominated for Congress and was elected by a majority of 67 votes, but was counted out by a change of ballots in one precinct in the 10th ward and at Fisherville, which gave his opponent a majority of 142.

In 1887 Mr. Willson married Miss Mary Ekin, daughter of Gen. James A. Ekin, of Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Willson have no children, one, a boy, having died in infancy.

Mr. Willson was a delegate to the National Conventions of 1884, 1888, 1892 and 1904. He is the first Harvard governor of Kentucky.—Louisville Herald.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proven to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough.—Rev. Jas. A. Lewis, pastor Milaca, Minn., M. E. church. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is sold by all Druggists.

At the Baptist church, last Sunday morning Pastor Roddy made up a subscription of $1,500 toward paying the church debt in three minutes. He could have gotten $1,000 more, probably, but did not call for any subscription less than $60, leaving that for another time. He expects to raise the $3,200 within the next few days and wipe out the entire debt on the handsome church property.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Memorial of Judge R. C. Warren.

The bar of Stanford met in the court-house yesterday morning and after choosing Judge W. C. Bell chairman, the memorial below was presented and passed. The court-house was well filled and every member of the Stanford bar was present. Those who paid tributes to the honored dead were: Judges J. W. Alcorn, M. C. Sausley, Col. T. P. Hill, Hons. J. N. Saunders, J. B. Paxton, Judge J. S. Owsley, Jr., Hon. Harvey Helm, Commonwealth's Attorney C. A. Hardin and Judge W. C. Bell. All of the talks were good and much feeling was evidenced. It was a solemn occasion and the many who were present seemingly realized it.

The members of the bar and the other officers of the Lincoln circuit court being desirous of placing on record a tribute to the memory of their deceased friend and associate, Judge Richard C. Warren, do respectfully request that the court cause to be entered on its records this as an expression of their estimation of the man:

Richard Crutchfield Warren, a son of J. F. and Maria Crutchfield Warren, was born on the fourth day of April, 1841, in what was then a part of Lincoln county, Kentucky, but which was on the formation of Boyle county, Kentucky, included in that county. He received his academic education in Center College and graduated therefrom in June, 1862. After a time devoted to teaching in the Preparatory Department of the College he became a student in the Law Department of the University of Louisville and in March, 1866, received from that institution a diploma with the degree of Bachelor of Law. Within a few weeks thereafter he located in Stanford and engaged in his chosen calling of the practice of law and was admitted by this court as a member of its bar. In August, 1870, he was elected for the term of four years to the office of county attorney for Lincoln county. He served in that office for the full term of four years.

In 1880 he was elected for the term of six years to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the Eighth Judicial District of Kentucky, of which Lincoln county was then a part. That office he filled for the full term. In 1889 he was elected as the Representative of Lincoln county in the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and served for the term. In 1893 he was appointed Master Commissioner of the Lincoln Circuit Court and held that office 11 years.

In 1905 he was elected to the office of Judge of the Lincoln County Court and was an incumbent of that office at the time of his death, which was on Nov. 1st, 1907.

This epitome of some of his connections with the public affairs of the county shows in itself, the place he held in the hearts of the people of this county.

He was married on the 9th day of January, 1872, to Miss Charlotte L. Duncan and is survived by her and five daughters and one son. His wife was a devoted helpmeet and their children are worthy of their parentage.

He was fondly esteemed by those who knew him; trusted by those who gave him places of trust, loved by his friends, adored by the wife he married and the children he nurtured. His final leave has left an empty space. He will be remembered. His name will be recalled by young men of to-day long after they shall have passed into the yellow leaf and it will be mentioned respectfully and tenderly.

He was a just man; sincere in his attachments, warm in his friendships. He was without guile, innocent of deceit, devoid of duplicity. He was artless and confiding, despised shams, hypocrisy and fraud. He was strong in mental convictions, conservative in judgment and unmovable from moral principle.

He was, of course, not perfect, but whatever may have been his imperfections they were almost entirely hidden by his kindly courtesy, unwearied patience and charity toward his fellow man.

Truly has Lincoln county lost a most excellent public servant and the community a citizen full worthy of the honors bestowed upon him.

They request that a certified copy be sent to the family of the deceased. P. M. McRoberts, M. C. Sausley, J. W. Alcorn, Committee.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

If Gov. Beckham is not the democratic nominee for U. S. Senator, Judge Hager and the rest of those who were nominated by the primary of November, 1906, were not the party nominees. Nobody questioned them, why question the governor's nomination? Democrats of the right stripe support democratic nominees and the Senator or Representative who does not vote for Gov. Beckham is a bolter pure and simple. We put little or no credence in the talk of certain party men refusing to vote for the governor and the rot the bolting Courier-Journal is sending out is absolutely sickening. That paper's hatred for Gov. Beckham, who made it impossible for Hon. Henry Watterson to get the nomination for governor, is shown in its every utterance and its fight on him and the lack of support it gave Judge Hager, together with its bolt of Bryan, will make democrats the more anxious to carry their point and rebuke the hybrid sheet. Lincoln is an average county, we think, and that it was the hottest McCreary county in the State with the exception of Madison, Senator McCreary's home, we know. It was also a whisky county and since Gov. Beckham was nominated the saloons have closed. But even under these circumstances, nobody is seriously talking about defeating him for the office he seeks except the republicans, whose dislike for him should make democrats love him the more. It is true Gov. Beckham has a number of enemies in his own party in Lincoln but even they would put no obstacle in his way. Our democrats are democrats from principle and can hate a nominee and vote for him with the best of grace. We believe the governor will make his calling and election sure but realize that he has something of a fight on his hands. He is a natural born fighter, however, and is fully equal to the occasion.

To SENATOR MCCREARY: While the Courier-Journal, responsive to the personal and political disappointment of Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Watterson, is endeavoring to stir up democratic opposition to Gov. Beckham as a candidate for the Senate, and is hunting for some excuse to release democratic members of the General Assembly from obeying the mandate of a full, fair, free primary election in which the democracy of Kentucky designated its preference for Gov. Beckham as United States Senator, you, Senator McCreary, the defeated candidate, whose one word could silence such treacherous party perfidy and make honest men ashamed, speak not. Mr. McCreary, the democracy of Kentucky that honored you with the governorship, with a seat in Congress and elevated you to the Senate of the United States, stands appalled at your silence. You are an honorable man, justly honored of and by Kentucky. It behooves you to speak and to speak in no uncertain tones. As your personal and political friend we urge you to denounce the base treachery that is being hatched. Unless you do your own skirts will be besmeared with the filth of dirty political marplots.

OUT of 531 death claims, amounting to $1,419,470.50, paid by the New York Life in the single month of September, only one death was due to old age. In the same month in which the man died from senile heart trouble, others insured in the company died from the following causes: From consumption, 70; pneumonia, 26; typhoid fever, 21; Bright's disease, 44; accidents 59; apoplexy 28; appendicitis, 18; cancer and tumors, 24; paralysis, 23; liver disease, 12.

JUDGE HAGER made a manly, a brave and a most creditable canvass. He did his duty nobly and well. That he was defeated is no fault of his own. For he is clean, honest and incorruptible. He goes down in defeat carrying with him the love and respect of every one who knows him and with a consciousness of duty well performed. He would have made an ideal business Governor. He will continue to be an ideal Democratic gentleman and a citizen without reproach.

The State Journal, of Frankfort, was seven years old Friday. It is about the liveliest youngster in Kentucky and as Judge Charles R. McDowell, of Danville, says "the only democratic daily under any and all circumstances in the State." May it live long and continue its fight for democracy and mankind.

GEORGE A. NEWMAN, Jr., the editor, and publisher of the Louisville Herald, will receive the first appointment at the hands of Gov.-elect A. E. Willson. He will be commissioned the first Colonel on the Governor's staff and the Chief of the Staff. Mr. Newman deserves the honor. If he gets to be as old as Methuselah and prays continuously until death comes he will not get forgiveness for all the lies he printed on the democratic party in the campaign which ended a week ago to-day.

THIS is the way the Somerset Republican apologizes for the splendid race Napier Adams, who was elected Clerk of the Court of Appeals, made in Pulaski, notwithstanding that paper's fight on him: "We presume that some democrats thought it would have been too great a shock for the State of Kentucky to have elected a whole set of officers that stand for an honest ballot and a fair count, and, hence, they checkmated a move made to that end by republicans and voted for Goebelized republicans."

JUDGE JOHN D. CARROLL's appellate district went 3,340 democratic in the governor's race. It was first reported to have gone republican. Clay, Owsley Knox and Laurel were lopped off the Fifth district and added to the Seventh shortly after Judge W. S. Pryor was defeated by Judge Burnham, leaving but 18 counties in his district.

WE are glad to know that our friend, Mr. Sam M. Wilhite, controller of the city of Louisville, will not be disturbed by the political landslide of last week. He will serve the city two years longer. He will have the distinction of being about the only democratic office-holder in the Falls City.

THE Mt. Vernon Signal has joined the Courier-Journal in its fight on Gov. Beckham. These great publications may defeat the democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate but the aspect presented by them in attempting to thwart the will of the democracy is anything but creditable.

ONE of the most delightful entertainments Stanford has had in years was that given by the Harmony Concert Co. at Walton's Opera House Friday evening. The four ladies who took part are all artists but the Kirksmith sisters, three in number, are especially good in both vocal and instrumental numbers. Miss Blakeslee is a fine pianist. A fair crowd was present and such liberal applause was given each number that many of them were repeated.

A PATHETIC story of false love, broken promises and infidelity to woman is told in "A Dangerous Friend," a thrilling melodrama, the week-end attraction at Burt's, but two packed houses enjoyed it. The action of the play revolves around Edwin Scribner and Violet Marsden, whose work is clever. Mr. Scribner plays the part of Allen Randolph, a social crook, whose suave manner secures for him the love of innocent girls. Randolph's love, however, is only artificial, and once in his power he compels his prey to pass counterfeit money of which he is a manufacturer. Fanny, a pretty country girl, is one of his victims, and immediately after she leaves the old home for New York, the trouble starts. Many exciting scenes have been worked up by the dramatist, including a safe robbery. Miss Marsden's work as Fanny is praiseworthy, Edwin Scribner is good, and other members of the cast efficient. See "A Dangerous Friend" at Walton's Opera House Friday evening, Nov. 22.

Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

HANDY PRESENT.—Mr. C. R. Coleman, manager and a big stockholder in the Coleman Mining Co., at Cary, Bell county, has our thanks for a beautiful and handy present in the shape of a celluloid paper cutter. It was made in Germany and is of unique design. The handle is a red fox on a brown limb and the blade is pure white with "Coleman Mining Co." printed in gold on it. The company mines the famous Fox Ridge coal and a fox is their trade mark. By the way, if you have not tried this coal you had better make a trial order from your coal dealer.

HAPPY OCCASION.—Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter Givens celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage on Nov. 8th. The day dawned bright and beautiful, as did 25 years ago when Mr. Givens went to Bourbon and claimed Miss Neppie Moore as his bride. A bountiful feast was spread and a very happy day spent by relatives and intimate friends. The guests' name cards were leaves of English ivy with name and date traced in silver. In the center of the table an immense bouquet of brides roses lent the fragrance of the wedding of 1882. Mistletoe bowers were strewn all over the house. The gifts were suggestive of the occasion and were quite pretty. The daughter of the house—Miss Lucy Miller—one of Lincoln county's fairest debutants, mingled with the guests and added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Toasts were drunk from a silver loving cup and everything "went merry as a marriage bell." Those who were fortunate enough to be present were: Mesdames Albert Scott Miller, William Wasson Goltra and Master William Goltra, of Crawfordville, Ind.; Mr. Samuel D. Bartley, of Corydon, Ind.; Mrs. George Williams Stuart, Master John Stuart, of Paris; Mr. and Mrs. Will Givens, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beazley, Miss Florence Givens, Miss Belle Denny, Mr. and Mrs. James Baughman, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and Mrs. Mary Givens.

OWSLEY APPOINTED.—Mr. John Sam Owsley, Jr., was appointed county judge to succeed Judge R. C. Warren, deceased, Friday. Gov. Beckham forwarded his commission at once and Mr. Owsley qualified Saturday. Judge Owsley is well fitted for the responsible position and should make an official that the county will have reason to be proud of.

In the county court yesterday the wills of Judge R. C. Warren and Skelton Coleman were probated. Judge M. C. Sauley qualified as administrator of the former and the widow of Mr. Coleman administratrix of the latter. All road business was carried over until the next term. Judge Owsley appointed the following gentlemen supervisors: Messrs. J. P. Bailey, J. B. Foster, J. M. Cress, J. B. McKee and Wm. North.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it 20 or 30 minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health coffee imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Penny's Drug Store.

THEATRE TALK NO. 1

Plays whose prominent features are love, heart interest, heroism, comedy, pathos, vice and virtue, always find popular favor.

A Great Play

They are sought after by theatre-goers who appreciate real merit. That is why "A Dangerous Friend," an original melodrama, booked to appear in this town has met with such success. It contains five acts and the scenes are laid in the United States. Various types of life, good and bad, are introduced, while the scenic display is said to be adequate.

"THROW UP YOUR HANDS, OR ILL SHOOT TO KILL"

It is not the usual murderous melodrama and clap-trap comedy that we usually see in plays of this class, but a beautiful story well told by a thoroughly competent company, and shown in a setting that is seldom excelled. It needs no apology, for it is equal in construction of many a melodrama that has enjoyed a long lease of life. The story is a trite one of reascendancy and innocence. This piece has won merited praise wherever presented and is something quite unique in the melodramatic line, which will be sure to please the theatre-goers of this city. THE MANAGER SAYS HE WILL GIVE YOU YOUR MONEY'S WORTH, OR YOUR MONEY BACK. USUAL PRICES WILL PREVAIL.

J. K. Coffey has lately moved into the property opposite W. C. Bryant's store. Jesse Fogle is carrying his arm in a sling as the result of a sprain. Miss Mollie Tilford went to Liberty to visit her grandfather, Judge Tilford.

I would seem an ingrate indeed if I did not in some way express my thanks to my neighbors and friends for the support they gave me in the race for magistrate. There was a very determined effort made against me and I appreciate the support given me by the best element of both parties. My majority was as small as it could well have been, though it would have been quite large had my name appeared on the ballots at Walltown, as it should have done. And in this connection I want to thank the Walltown people for their interest in me and am sorry they did not have the privilege of casting their votes for me. Now, while graciously thanking my neighbors and friends for standing by me so nobly, I want to say that I entertain no ill will toward those who so strenuously opposed me. I am on top but am not crowing over my fallen foes.

Lingering Cold.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very harsh and dry. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

Fire which started in the Great Northern elevator at Superior, Wis., caused a $3,000,000 loss. Over 700,000 bushels of grain, three flouring mills, 40 houses and four boats were destroyed.

A Reliable Remedy For Croup.

Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Medicine for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all Druggists.

MATRIMONIAL.

Mariot Flowers and Miss Cordelia Blankenship, both aged 76 years, were married at Vine Groves.

Miss Alice Hughes and John Willis, of Middleboro, were joined in wedlock's holy bonds on a moving train near that city.

Miss Bessie Carter and Mr. Claude C. Ross were given a beautiful home wedding by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Carter, Wednesday evening. The couple left for their home at Stearns yesterday.—Somerset Journal.

Miss Mittie Dunn, School Superintendent of Garrard, and Mr. John M. Smith, of Mackville, drove to Danville and were married. She is a niece of Attorney James I. Hamilton. The groom was for several years cashier of the bank at Bryantsville, and is now occupying a similar position at Mackville.

Farley Scott, a prominent young farmer, and Miss Blanch Newland, the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. Henry F. Newland, of the Preachersville section, were joined heart and hand Saturday. The wedding was a quiet affair. The INTERIOR JOURNAL joins the friends of the young couple in wishing them a long and happy married life.

The New Pure Food and Drug Law.

The statement of the New York Clearing-house banks for the past week shows that the banks hold $51,924,625 less than the requirements of the 25 per cent. reserve rule. This is a decrease in the proportionate cash reserve of $13,085,800 as compared with the previous week.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c. at penny's Drug Store.

The action of the President in recognizing the Evans faction in Tennessee by the appointment of an Internal Revenue Collector is accepted as a move toward a third term. H. Clay Evans is consistently booming the President as the Republican candidate in 1908.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch colds at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it will break up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in a yellow package G. L. Penny.

The President has issued an order consolidating the two internal revenue collection districts of Tennessee into one district, with headquarters at Nashville, and has appointed Robert S. Sharp, of Chattanooga, collector of the new district.

Triaf Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

This is Worth Remembering.

As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine.

Go to D. V. Kennedy & Co., for meal, shipstuf and flour. They make prices any hour. Their custom is great, their mill is small; they are anxious to grind for one and all. The corn is ripe, the wheat is plenty; the price of shipstuf is one and twenty.

A four-year-old son of George Arnold, of Evansville, Ind., was run over by a wagon and killed.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and salivary complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

How to Cure Your Piles

If sufferers from piles and rectal diseases would first try a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin instead of using external salves and suppositories, they would save themselves a world of trouble, expense and pain. The reason is that in nine cases out of ten piles are the result of habitual constipation, and when once the constipation is thoroughly cured the piles disappear.

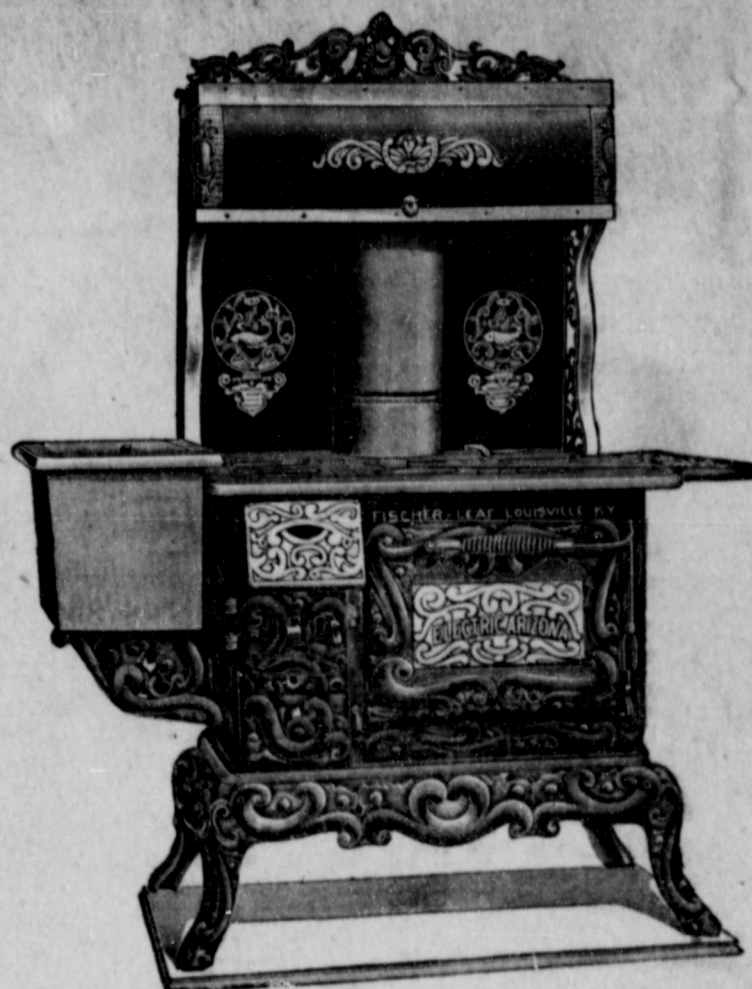

Piles are to constipation what pimples are to bad blood, simply an outward symptom. And just as face lotions aren't half as good for pimples as a good blood medicine, so salves and suppositories aren't half as good for piles as a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

A 50 cent or $1 bottle will prove these claims, and every druggist is authorized to guarantee results. Hundreds of people have written us that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best pile cure they know of, and it is surely worth a trial from you. Not only will it cure the piles but it will permanently correct bowel trouble so that you will have regular movements. It will tone the stomach and make digestion easy for you.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, and all resultant troubles, such as piles, arising from disordered stomach, liver or bowels. Its gentle action and pleasant taste make it especially suited to children and all who are too weak to stand purgative waters, salts and gripping powders and tablets. A physic is not what pile sufferers need, but steady, easy bowel movements, and these can be obtained by the use of this wonderful remedy. It brings about a permanent home cure at a minimum of expense.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is open only to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.
